Watch for how he argues that the Bible can be trusted by looking at Abraham, David, Peter, the empty tomb, and John's opening words in Genesis 1 and John 1.

PARA REFLEXÃO

The Big Question

If if there's a God, doesn't it make sense God would communicate with us?

PARA REFLEXÃO

Is the Bible Part of That Communication?

Is the bible part of that communication?

Just saying something is true doesn't make it true.

— A Claim Is Not Enough

PARA REFLEXÃO

Is a Self-Claim Enough?

Is that enough just for the Bible to claim, as somebody might say it claims, that it's the truth because it says your word is truth?

PARA REFLEXÃO

Why Trust the Bible?

What if there's a better reasons to trust the bible than a text from the Bible?

PARA REFLEXÃO

Embarrassing Details

Why would the Bible include the embarrassing failures of Abraham, David, and Peter if it were making the story up?

The embarrassing details about themselves.
