ACOMPANHAR AO VIVO

Is there a God? Does He care?

18 de julho de 2026

Before You Press Play

Watch for how he moves from the empty, formless earth in Genesis, to the Goldilocks-like precision of Earth, to the question of whether creation itself points to a purposeful Creator.

PARA REFLEXÃO

Question 1

What question does he say this sermon is really built around, and why does he call it the foundational question?

PARA REFLEXÃO

Question 2

How does he use the contrast between God creating the universe and “nothing” creating the universe to frame the discussion?

> Sometimes it's just easier to believe in nothing because nothing has no requirements.
>
> — Quote to Notice

PARA REFLEXÃO

Question 3

What details does he give from Genesis about the earth being unformed and empty, and how does he say that affects the way we think about creation?

PARA REFLEXÃO

Question 4

What does he mean when he says faith and evidence are not enemies, but are both involved in belief?

> All belief requires faith and evidence.
>
> — Quote to Notice

PARA REFLEXÃO

Question 5

Which parts of his scientific explanation about Earth being “just right” stand out most to you, and why does he present them as evidence of design?

PARA REFLEXÃO

Question 6

How does he connect Psalm 19 to the idea that the heavens and skies are narrating God’s glory even without spoken words?

> The planet we're on is just right for life to have the possibility to happen.
>
> — Quote to Notice

PARA REFLEXÃO

Question 7

Why does he spend time on Stephen Hawking's own words, and what point is he trying to make with that quotation?

PARA REFLEXÃO

Question 8

What does he suggest about the multiverse theory, and how does he challenge the idea that it removes the need for a Creator?

> What if that's by design?
>
> — Quote to Notice

PARA REFLEXÃO

Question 9

How does he say the evidence of creation should affect our discipleship, especially our willingness to respond to God rather than just admire the universe?

PARA REFLEXÃO

Question 10

When he says it can be easier to believe in nothing because nothing has no requirements, what personal response is he inviting you to make about faith?

> Lord, sometimes we have so little hope that the only hope we have is the hope we had.
>
> — Quote to Notice

ORAÇÃO

After the Sermon

Lord, thank you for the witness of creation, the order of the universe, and the hope you give when our faith feels small. Help us trust that what you made points to you, and lead us to follow you with honest, living faith. Amen.