Watch for God's provision in worry

As you watch this sermon, notice how he prays at the close for people needing jobs, trusting God to open doors, give favor in interviews, and provide what is needed in a season of anxiety and uncertainty.

PARA REFLEXÃO

What need is he praying about?

What specific need does he bring before God in this closing prayer?

You are the one that opens doors and closes them.

— God as the one who opens doors

PARA REFLEXÃO

What does this say about trust?

How does this line show the preacher's view of God's control over uncertain situations?

PARA REFLEXÃO

What season is he talking about?

When he says, 'in this season,' what kind of season do you think he means for people facing joblessness and worry?

we will trust in you in this season

— Trusting God in need

PARA REFLEXÃO

What is being trusted God to provide?

What does the preacher say God will provide for those who have decided to follow Him?

PARA REFLEXÃO

Why mention encouragement?

Why does he ask God to give encouragement to those needing employment?

God, I am praying that they will find favor in the eyes of the interviewers.

— Favor in interviews

PARA REFLEXÃO

What does favor look like here?

In the context of a job interview, what might 'favor in the eyes of the interviewers' mean?

PARA REFLEXÃO

How does this prayer challenge worry?

How does praying for doors, provision, and favor challenge a heart that is anxious about the future?

PARA REFLEXÃO

Where do you need to trust God?

What area of your life right now most needs the kind of trust this prayer models?

Closing prayer

Lord, for anyone listening who is worried about work, finances, or the future, help them trust You as the one who opens doors and provides in every season. Give them peace, encouragement, and favor, and teach them to lean on You instead of anxiety. Amen.
