Do all paths lead to the same God?

1 de agosto de 2026

Before You Press Play

Watch how Mike contrasts Gandhi's "different roads" idea with the sermon's main claim: Christianity is not a ladder people climb in Chicago, Rome, or anywhere else, but God moving toward people through Jesus.

PARA REFLEXÃO

The Big Question

As Mike opens the series, what makes his question—"Aren't all religions basically the same?"—such a powerful starting point for the rest of the sermon?

> the the various religions are like different roads converging on the same point.
> — Gandhi's Claim

PARA REFLEXÃO

What Really Differs?

When Mike says religions disagree about God, suffering, forgiveness, and the afterlife, which difference stands out most clearly to you so far?

> They disagree about almost everything.
> — The Key Objection

PARA REFLEXÃO

God Moves First

How does Jesus' words about God loving the world so much and giving his Son challenge the usual idea that people must climb up to God?

> Christianity doesn't begin with people climbing toward God. It begins with God moving toward people.
> — The Heart of Grace

PARA REFLEXÃO

Grace vs. Earning

Why does Mike say grace feels so hard to accept when it cuts against our normal instinct to earn, deserve, and get credit?

> God shows he proves his own great love for us in this way, that Christ that Jesus died for us while we were still sinners.
> — Grace in Romans

PARA REFLEXÃO

The Cost of Sin

When Mike says sin leads to death, a gap with God, and brokenness in real life, what examples from your own world make that feel believable?

PARA REFLEXÃO

The Resurrection Test

Why does Mike insist that Christianity rises or falls on the resurrection of Jesus, rather than on vague spirituality or personal preference?

> If Christ has not been raised, if Jesus does not come back to life, then our preaching is worth nothing.
> — Paul's Warning

PARA REFLEXÃO

Eyewitnesses and Evidence

How does Paul's list of Peter, the Twelve, the 500, James, and himself strengthen the claim that Jesus really came back to life?

PARA REFLEXÃO

The Difference Is Jesus

As Mike compares Christianity with every other religion's founder, why is Jesus' death, burial, and resurrection the decisive difference?

> But God gives us the free gift of life forever, eternal life in Christ Jesus our Lord.
> — The Free Gift

Your Own Search

Where are you most tempted to keep searching for meaning through achievement, relationships, distraction, or religion instead of receiving what God has already done?

ORAÇÃO

After the Sermon

Lord Jesus, help us see that you are not one road among many, but the Savior who came for us, died for our sins, and rose again. Give us faith to stop striving, trust your grace, and rest in the life you freely give. Amen.
