ACOMPANHAR AO VIVO

Is soul sleep a christian understanding of death?

15 de agosto de 2026

Before You Press Play

Watch for how the conversation at New Hope Fulton moves from Woody Allen's joke to Lazarus, John 3:16, and Paul's hope-filled picture of death as sleep and resurrection as God's gift.

PARA REFLEXÃO

Opening Question

What does the speaker say is the real question behind every funeral and every fear of death?

> The bible describes this idea as being asleep, which is sort of strange to us because it's like, wait.
>
> — Death as Sleep

PARA REFLEXÃO

Early Observation

How does the speaker connect childhood prayers like "Now I lay me down to sleep" with the biblical picture of death?

PARA REFLEXÃO

Lazarus Example

Why do the disciples misunderstand Jesus when He says Lazarus is asleep?

> You ought to comfort each other's words, and it's this idea of having some hope in a very hopeless situation.
>
> — Hope in a Hopeless Situation

PARA REFLEXÃO

From Sleep to Resurrection

According to the sermon, why is the resurrection central to Jesus' message instead of endless punishment?

PARA REFLEXÃO

John 3:16 Meaning

What two outcomes does the speaker say John 3:16 contrasts: everlasting life or something else?

> God alone has immortality, period,
>
> — God Alone

PARA REFLEXÃO

Analytical Shift

How does the speaker use Genesis and the idea of breath to argue that life is a gift from God rather than something naturally immortal in us?

PARA REFLEXÃO

Paul's Comfort

What comfort does Paul give about "the dead in Christ" and the Lord's return?

> "
>
> The resurrection is the the the ridding of the world of the sin problem.
>
> — Resurrection Purpose

PARA REFLEXÃO

Analytical Reflection

How does the speaker say the resurrection reverses the damage of sin and restores relationship with God?

PARA REFLEXÃO

Personal Application

When someone you love dies, how does this sermon challenge the usual phrase "they're in a better place"?

PARA REFLEXÃO

Hope for Grief

What kind of hope does the speaker want grieving families to hear instead of fear or platitudes?

> "
>
> there is no eternal hell.
>
> — No Eternal Hell

PARA REFLEXÃO

Final Personal Response

If death is sleep and resurrection is God's gift, how should that change the way you face your own mortality today?

ORAÇÃO

Closing Prayer

Lord, thank You for the hope of resurrection, the gift of everlasting life, and the comfort You give in grief. Help us trust Your grace, rest in Your promise, and live with hope instead of fear. Amen.