

ACOMPANHAR AO VIVO

The Women Behind the Exodus

Chad Stuart

9 de maio de 2026

Spencerville Adventist Church · doxus.org

Gerado por Doxus · doxus.org

Before You Press Play

Watch for how he uses the Exodus story, from Shiphrah and Puah to Jochebed, Miriam, and Pharaoh's daughter, to show that God works through overlooked women, not just famous leaders like Moses.

PARA REFLEXÃO

Observation 1

What historical example does he use first to show how one famous name can overshadow the people who made the achievement possible?

Do you remember who was the first American to orbit the earth?

— Key Line

PARA REFLEXÃO

Observation 2

Why does he bring up Katherine Johnson and Hidden Figures before turning to the Exodus story?

PARA REFLEXÃO

Observation 3

Which main figure in the Exodus does he say people most often remember, and what contrast is he building with that?

PARA REFLEXÃO

Analysis 1

How does he connect the story of Exodus to the book of Revelation and the three angels' message?

PARA REFLEXÃO

Analysis 2

What does he say about the importance of unnamed or unrecognized people in God's work?

Fear of God is the only fear that frees you from every other fear in life.

— Key Line

PARA REFLEXÃO

Analysis 3

What does the preacher mean when he says the midwives feared God more than Pharaoh?

PARA REFLEXÃO

Application 1

How is Jochebed's hidden faith and then her act of placing Moses in the river an example of courageous trust?

PARA REFLEXÃO

Application 2

In what way does Miriam show what it means to stay ready for God's moment?

Stay ready because you never know when god's gonna need you in the moment.

— Key Line

PARA REFLEXÃO

Application 3

What does Pharaoh's daughter's response teach about compassion, even when it goes against family power or public rules?

Do the right thing. Do the human thing.

— Key Line

PARA REFLEXÃO

Application 4

How does Zipporah's action help Moses, and what does that reveal about standing in the gap for others?

PARA REFLEXÃO

Personal Response

Which of these women's examples feels most challenging for you right now: fearing God, acting in faith, staying ready, doing the human thing, or standing in the gap?

 ORAÇÃO Closing Prayer

Lord, make me faithful in the moment I am in, and help me play my part in your story with courage, trust, and compassion.